

happy new year

Hello! How was your winter vacation? I hope you had a relaxing school break. I'm excited to hear your vacation stories. By the way, how do you celebrate New Year's eve and day?

This month, I'll talk about how other countries welcome the new year.

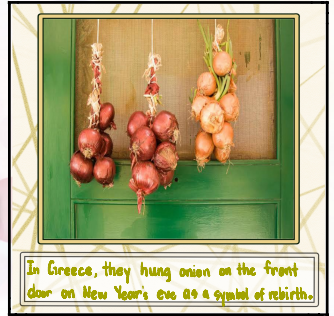

Philippines

In the Philippines, families prepare 12 round fruits to bring goodluck for the new year.

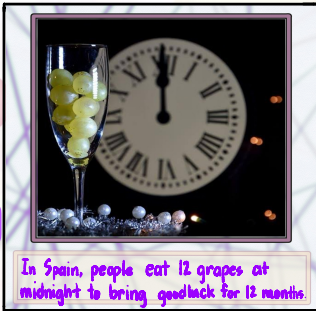

Greece

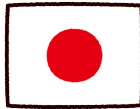

In Greece, they hung onion on the front door on New Year's eve as a symbol of rebirth.

Spain

In Spain, people eat 12 grapes at midnight to bring goodluck for 12 months.

Japan

In Japan, people visit temples on the first day of the year.
